

Independence Day Celebration!

Volume 2, Issue 5

July 2008

Ideas For Making Your Fourth of July Party Extra Special

Patriotic balloons, decorations, novelties, scene setters, and tableware will give your guests the idea that some serious party plans are on your mind for the 4th of July!

Balloons in hues of red, white, & blue are festive and set the mood for a serious night of fun.

Create a festive atmosphere with red, white, and blue candles.

Miniature flags can be placed onto tables or as a food decoration.

Hedges, trees, and shrubbery are perfect for strategically placing stick flags and lighting.

Uncle Sam hats can be placed on tables or worn by guests.

Let the Games Begin!

- ♦ Ice cream or watermelon eating contest—my favorite watermelon seed spitting contest!
- ♦ Three legged race
- ♦ Water balloon toss
- ♦ How about a game of horseshoes, bocce, volleyball or croquet
- ♦ Let's not forget the all American game of baseball
